4. CLIENT RIGHTS AND IMPORTANT INFORMATION

a. You are entitled to receive information from therapist about your therapy methods, techniques used, duration (if known), and fee structure.

- b. You can seek a second opinion from another therapist or terminate therapy at any time.
- c. In a professional relationship (such as ours), sexual intimacy is never appropriate and should be reported to the Board that licenses, registers, or certifies the licensee, registrant or certificate holder.
- d. Generally speaking, the information provided by and to the client in a professional relationship with therapist is legally confidential and therapist cannot disclose the information without client's consent. There are several exceptions to confidentiality which include: (1) I am required to report any suspected/known incident of child abuse (even if victim is an adult now if there's knowledge/reason to believe that perpetrator is in position of trust (clergy, teacher, parent), or elder (70yo+) abuse or neglect to law enforcement, even if it's already been reported, so you have the option of choosing how much to disclose; (2) I am required to make reasonable and timely effort to report any serious threat of imminent physical violence against a specific person(s), including specific location/entity to law enforcement and to the person(s) threatened; (3) I may report to school/district and law enforcement an articulable and significant threat or substantial bodily harm against a school or occupants or exhibits such behaviors; (4) I am required to initiate a mental health evaluation of a client who is imminently dangerous to self or to others, or who is gravely disabled, as a result of a mental disorder, which may include a call to CO Crisis Support Line for a mobile evaluation which may result in a 72-hour hold, which I will not be liable for; (5) I am required to report any suspected threat to national security to federal officials; (6) I may be required by Court Order to disclose treatment information; and (7) I am urged to report to a county department reasonably believed or observed incidents or imminent risk of mistreatment (abuse, caretaker neglect and/or exploitation), and/or self-neglect of at-risk adults and elders (unable or lacks sufficient understanding or capacity to communicate responsible decision making or perform or obtain services needed for their health safety or welfare) not more than 24 hours after observation or discovery; IDD to law enforcement agency. You may read section 12-43-218, 18-3-401(3.5), 18-6.5-108, 19-3-304(1), 26-5-111, and 27-65105 of the Colorado Revised Statutes C.R.S 25-1-802, and the HIPAA Privacy Rule Federal law 45 C.F.R 164.501 for further details. If a legal exception arises during therapy, if feasible, you will be informed accordingly. The Mental Health Practice Act (CRS 12-43-101, et seq.) is available at: <http://www.dora.state.co.us/mental-health/Statute.pdf>.
- e. Other exceptions to confidentiality include that I am in an extended relationship pertaining to counseling/therapy with two supervisors. Receiving supervision in pursuit of my degree and licensure is an exception to confidentiality, and all laws and statutes related to confidentiality apply directly to supervision. I may share client name, date of birth, and confidential, personal, and private clinical information related to client sessions. The purpose of supervision is to assure quality care.
- e. When I am concerned about your safety, you consent to my policy to request a Welfare Check through local law enforcement. In doing so, I may disclose to law enforcement officers information concerning my concerns.
- f. Under Colorado law, C.R.S. 14-10-123.8, parents have the right to access mental health treatment information concerning their minor children, unless the court has restricted access to such information. If parents request treatment information from me, I may provide a treatment summary, in compliance with Colorado law and HIPAA Standards.

- g. To not have sessions or a conversation with me recorded by you, members, or therapist without our advance written signed consent permitting it.
- h. To develop your goals and Treatment Plan and learn of the benefits and risks associated with the particular approach, and anticipated frequency, with no absolute guarantee of your desired results by your therapist as it is hard to predict the outcome of therapy.
- i. To phone call therapist for any non-emergency reason during office hours: 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 pm. Messages will be returned by the end of the next business day. Therapist is not available on an emergency basis.
- j. To text or email for scheduling purposes only. To protect your privileged and private confidential information by not texting or emailing it; it becomes a part of your legal medical record documented and archived in your chart. Emails are retained in the logs of your and my Internet service providers and available to be read by their system administrator(s). All of technology is not confidential and can be hacked into. To consent to sending and accepting texts you recognize the risk that information could be exposed to others when it appears on your phone. Fax is used to transmit and receive health information to and from requested parties with consent. I understand that AIC may contact me to provide appointment reminders or information about treatment alternatives or other health-related benefits and services that may be of interest to me.
- k. AIC may keep and store client information electronically on AIC's laptop or desktop computers, and/or some mobile devices. In order to maintain security and protect this information, AIC may employ the use of firewalls, antivirus software, changing passwords regularly, and encryption methods to protect computers and/or mobile devices from unauthorized access. AIC may also remotely wipe out data on mobile devices if the mobile device is lost, stolen, or damaged. AIC may use electronic backup systems such as external hard drives, thumb drives, or similar methods. If such backup methods are used, reasonable precautions will be taken to ensure the security of this equipment and it will be locked up for storage. AIC uses a cloud-based service for storing or backing up information, Microsoft One Drive and Simple Practice EHR. AIC may maintain the security of the electronically stored information through encryption and passwords.
- l. To leave your cell phone in your car to protect privacy in case of spyware vulnerabilities. To turn off GPS tracking on your device if you use location-based services on your mobile phone.
- m. To know I do not accept friend or contact requests from current or former clients on any social networking site (Facebook, LinkedIn, etc) to avoid compromising confidentiality and to keep the boundaries of our therapeutic relationship so do not contact me these ways. I understand that AIC has a business social media account page. I understand that there is no requirement that I "like" or "follow" this page. I understand that should I "like" or choose to "follow" AIC's business social media page that others will see my name associated with "liking" or "following" that page. I understand that this applies to any comments that I post on AIC's page/wall as well. I understand that any comments I post regarding therapeutic work between my therapist and I will be deleted as soon as possible. I agree that I will refrain from discussing, commenting, and/or asking therapeutic questions via any social media platform. I agree that if I have a therapeutic comment and/or question that I will contact my therapist through the mode I consented to and not through social media. Know my listings on any site like square, yelp, etc. are not requests to add a review, testimonial, rating or endorsement.

n. To express yourself on any site you wish using a pseudonym not linked to your email address or friend networks to protect your confidentiality, but I cannot respond to any review due to confidentiality, and I may never see them. To communicate anything about therapy or therapist directly in session, even if you decide we are not a good fit.

o. To call 911 or go to the nearest hospital emergency room in the event of a crisis/emergency and seek immediate medical or psychiatric attention. If currently considering or threatening suicide or any form of harm to myself or others, client takes full responsibility for seeking appropriate local help immediately and for any action client may take. Client acknowledges the following resources:

1-800-273-TALK(8255) 24hour Suicide Prevention Lifeline	1-800- SUICIDE	1-800-656- HOPE	1-800-TLC- TEEN	844-493-TALK(8255) text TALK to 38255 CO Crisis Support Line

p. To understand that, in keeping with generally accepted standards of practice, therapist may confidentially consult with or receive mentoring from other mental health professionals, i.e. regarding case management. The purpose of the consultation is to assure quality care, and every effort is made to protect the identity of clients. You will be notified as to whom and when requested given a release form to sign prior to the consulting.

q. A proceeding for discipline of a licensee, registrant, or certificate holder may be added to existing statutes; commenced when the board that licenses, registers, or certifies the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder has reasonable grounds to believe that the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder under the board's jurisdiction has committed any act or failed to act pursuant to the grounds established in section 12-43-222 or 12-43-226. (II) (A) Any person who alleges that a licensee, registrant, or certificate holder violated a provision of this article 43 related to maintenance of records of a client eighteen years of age or older must file a complaint or other notice with the board within seven years after the person discovered or reasonably should have discovered the misconduct. A licensee, registrant, or certificate holder shall notify a client that the client's records may not be maintained after the seven-year period for filing a complaint pursuant to this section. The required notice must be provided to the client in writing no later than one hundred eighty days after the end of the client's treatment. The notice may be included with the licensee's disclosures pursuant to section 12-43-214 (1) or sent to the client's last-known mailing address. Consistent with all procedural requirements of this article 43, or otherwise required by law, the board must either take disciplinary action on the complaint or dismiss the complaint no later than two years after the date the complaint or notice was filed with the board. (B) The seven-year limitation period specified in subsection (1)(a)(II)(A) of this section does not apply to the filing of a complaint or other notice with the board for any other violation of this article 43, including the acts described in section 12-43-222 or 12-43-226.

r. If an adult client requests a copy of the file then my policy is to provide a treatment summary. In the rare case that SSA or a disability agency requests a copy with a specific release for the actual record then the entire copy of the file may be released.

t. I will adhere to the Code of Ethics of the American Counseling Association

5. METHODS AND TECHNIQUES

Therapist utilizes the techniques of Carl Roger's Person or Client-Centered Therapy, Existential Therapy, Solution-Focused Therapy, as well as Motivational Interviewing. The different therapeutic modalities will be utilized appropriately according to client's specific needs and presenting issues/diagnoses. Therapist studied Science of Addiction Counseling through Grand Canyon University for a year, is finishing her Internship for her MA in Clinical Mental Health Counseling and is also familiar with 12 Step work for clients struggling with addiction issues. Areas of special interest include addiction, eating disorders, adolescence issues (bullying, etc.), panic and other anxiety disorders, as well as issues with depression. Session duration is determined according to client needs.

6. OUTDOOR THERAPY

Spending time outdoors during counseling sessions can be very valuable and is an option when you meet with me. However, you must know that certain situations outdoors may lead to encountering the risk of others in the community seeing a counseling session take place. Similar to group counseling, confidentiality cannot be guaranteed in outdoor counseling settings. However, I will do my best to ensure your physical and emotional safety. Clients agree to inform the counselor of any medical issues that may impact client safety during outdoor sessions (examples include, but are not limited to, allergies or heart conditions).

7. NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES RECEIPT & ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF NOTICE

You have been offered a copy of Therapist's "Notice of Privacy Practices" to read and it is available on our website. If you have any questions regarding the Notice or your privacy rights, you may inform Therapist. Client Refuses to Acknowledge Receipt

8. SLIDING SCALE FEE WITH PROMPT PAY DISCOUNT AT TIME OF SERVICE

9. DISCLOSURE REGARDING DIVORCE AND CUSTODY LITIGATION

If you are involved in divorce or custody litigation, my role as a therapist is not to make recommendations to the court concerning custody or parenting issues. By signing this Disclosure Statement, you agree not to subpoena me to court for testimony or for disclosure of treatment information in such litigation; and you agree not to request that I write any reports to the court or to your attorney, making recommendations concerning custody. The court can appoint professionals, who have no prior relationship with family members, to conduct an investigation or evaluation and to make recommendations to the court concerning parental responsibilities or parenting time in the best interests of the family's children. If you subpoena me or records I will obtain an attorney to oppose it in order to preserve the extremely important therapeutic relationship. Harm may result in the clinical relationship when providers are forced to testify and to share treatment information regarding their children clients. If children client's confidentiality is betrayed it may risk loss of therapeutic alliance and trust. Despite this should client subpoena therapist to testify in court about therapy sessions, therapist testimony in court is limited to statements of fact about therapy sessions conducted with client and attending parties. Therapist is

NOT qualified to offer opinions in matters of custody, parental fitness, and topics beyond the scope of the therapy sessions. Therapy sessions are protected by HIPAA and client/therapist confidentiality will be invoked during testimony, except where explicit or implied consent has been given by all parties attending those sessions being addressed. The judge may order therapist to testify, and therapist may appeal judge's order under certain extraordinary circumstances. Therapist fee is $500/hour, "door-to-door", regardless of whether therapist testifies, with a $1000 retainer due prior to the court date. If it is not paid for prior to giving testimony, therapist will inform the judge of that fact.

10. BILLING

Should you use insurance benefits, you authorize the release of any medical or other information necessary to process this claim and payment of medical benefits to the undersigned supplier of services (therapist). You also request payment of government benefits either to yourself or to the party who accepts assignment below (therapist). You acknowledge that some specific services are not a covered benefit by insurance and agree to pay, for example, many insurance companies including Medicaid do not cover couples counseling, or non-Axis I diagnoses, and clients are responsible for paying for that. Surprise/Balance billing. Beginning 1/1/2020, Colorado state law protects you from "surprise" or "balance billing." These protections apply when: 1) You receive covered emergency services, other than ambulance services, from an out-of-network provider in Colorado, and/or 2) you unintentionally receive covered services from an out-of-network provider at an in-network facility in Colorado. A complete list of client rights and responsibilities is available at <https://www.colorado.gov/pacific/dora/out-network-health-careprovider-reimbursement>, at <https://www.allinclusivecounseling.com/>, or by request through the patient portal.

11. LATE CANCELLATION/NO SHOW/TERMINATION POLICY AGREEMENT

You shall keep all scheduled appointments, unless a personal emergency occurs, and shall give notice of at least 24 hours of intention to cancel your appointment. If you leave a message, the date and time of the message will be notice. Cancellations for Monday sessions need to be cancelled by the end of business day (5pm) on Fridays. If appointment is canceled less than 24 hours, you will be charged a full session fee, unless an emergency occurred determined by therapist. Grace is always given for sickness and unsafe weather/road conditions. You will be responsible to schedule the next appointment. If you do not then Therapist will call once to clarify your wish to continue or end therapy. If you do not respond within a week, therapist will document closure with any reason. Therapist reserves the right to end therapy when appropriate and ethical. We refuse services for safety reasons. In the case that I become disabled, die, or am away on an extended leave of absence (hereinafter "extraordinary event,") the following Mental Health Professional Designee will have access to my client files. If I am unable to contact you prior to the extraordinary event occurring, the Mental Health Professional Designee will contact you. Please let me know if you are not comfortable with the below listed Mental Health Professional Designee and we will discuss possible alternatives at this time. Please let me know if you are not comfortable with the below listed Mental Health Professional Designee and we will discuss possible alternatives at this time. Leilani Cullen, M.A., LMFT, 203 N 6th St Suite A, Douglas, WY 82633.

12. RESPONSIBILITIES, PAYMENT FOR THERAPY FINANCIAL AGREEMENT

Your appointments will usually be 50 minutes and your first appointment will last 90 minutes, posted and charged the standard rates, or sliding fee scale with documentation of your household monthly/annual income. As the financially responsible person for the account, you are ultimately responsible for all fees described in this agreement and will pay at time of check-in for all portions of services due in full at the time services are provided by therapist. Payment methods accepted: Cash, Personal Check, or debit or HSA card via Electronic Payment Agreement using Stripe in Simple Practice. A $25 NSF insufficient fund charge is assessed for returned/declined checks/payments, and checks that are not paid within 2 weeks of being returned to Therapist’s office are handled as unpaid bills. Payments after 30 days may be assessed late fees. Fee for not paying at time of service is 10%. Unpaid bills may be submitted to collection services, credit reports, court, and the local district attorney’s office. You will then be required to make all payments in cash. In persistent cases a discharge from the practice may be appropriate for nonpayment situations. You and collaterals will be charged for phone consults of 16 minutes and more with therapist based on the standard rates below with a minimum 30 minutes rate. Office hours are 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Copy requests are $10/1st 300pp + $1/25pp after that.

13. TREATMENT AGREEMENT CONSENT AND AUTHORIZATION

By signing below I agree to abide by these accepted policy terms of service regarding treatment, disclosure, payment, privacy, late cancellations/no show, fees, billing, and rights. I authorize Therapist to provide psychotherapy assessment and/or mental health treatment/services, which may include EMDR therapy, and may include touch, to me as a client/consumer.

I have had an opportunity to discuss this with therapist. I have read all the information herein and it has been presented to me verbally. I understand the disclosures that have been made to me. I also acknowledge that I have received a copy of this Disclosure Statement if requested. I know my rights as a client or as the client’s privilege holder and enter this agreement.
