Practice Act (CRS 12-43-101, et seq.) is available at: <http://www.dora.state.co.us/mental-health/Statute.pdf>.

e. When I am concerned about a client's safety, it is my policy to request a Welfare Check through local law enforcement. In doing so, I may disclose to law enforcement officers information concerning my concerns. You consent to this practice, if it should become necessary.

f. Under Colorado law, C.R.S. 14-10-123.8, parents have the right to access mental health treatment information concerning their minor children, unless the court has restricted access to such information. If parents request treatment information from me, I may provide a treatment summary, in compliance with Colorado law and HIPAA Standards.

g. I agree not to record our sessions without your written consent; and you agree not to record a session or a conversation with me without my written consent.

h. To develop your goals and Treatment Plan and learn of the benefits and risks associated with the particular approach, and anticipated frequency, with no absolute guarantee of your desired results by your therapist as it is hard to predict the outcome of therapy.

i. To phone call therapist for any non-emergency reason during office hours: 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 pm. Messages will be returned by the end of the next business day. Therapist is not available on an emergency basis.

To protect your privileged and private confidential information by not texting or emailing it; it becomes a part of your legal medical record documented and archived in your chart. Emails are retained in the logs of your and my Internet service providers and available to be read by their system administrator(s). All of technology is not confidential and can be hacked into. To consent to sending and accepting texts you recognize the risk that information could be exposed to others when it appears on your phone. Fax is used to transmit and receive health information to and from requested parties with consent. I understand that AIC may contact me to provide appointment reminders or information about treatment alternatives or other health-related benefits and services that may be of interest to me.

k. AIC may keep and store client information electronically on AIC's laptop or desktop computers, and/or some mobile devices. In order to maintain security and protect this information, AIC may employ the use of firewalls, antivirus software, changing passwords regularly, and encryption methods to protect computers and/or mobile devices from unauthorized access. AIC may also remotely wipe out data on mobile devices if the mobile device is lost, stolen, or damaged. AIC may use electronic backup systems such as external hard drives, thumb drives, or similar methods. If such backup methods are used, reasonable precautions will be taken to ensure the security of this equipment and it will be locked up for storage. AIC uses a cloud-based service for storing or backing up information, Microsoft One Drive and Teams Office 365, Simple Practice Electronic Health Record (EHR) Gmail, and Zoom telehealth. AIC may maintain the security of the electronically stored information through encryption and passwords.

To not have sessions recorded by you, members, or therapist unless signed permission in writing is made in advance per session.

m. To know I do not accept friend or contact requests from current or former clients on any social networking site (Facebook, LinkedIn, etc) to avoid compromising confidentiality and to keep the boundaries of our therapeutic relationship so do not contact me these ways. I understand that AIC has a business social media account page. I understand that there is no requirement that I “like” or “follow” this page. I understand that should I “like” or choose to “follow” AIC’s business social media page that others will see my name associated with “liking” or “following” that page. I understand that this applies to any comments that I post on AIC’s page/wall as well. I understand that any comments I post regarding therapeutic work between my therapist and I will be deleted as soon as possible. I agree that I will refrain from discussing, commenting, and/or asking therapeutic questions via any social media platform. I agree that if I have a therapeutic comment and/or question that I will contact my therapist through the mode I consented to and not through social media. Know my listings on any site like square, yelp, etc. are not requests to add a review, testimonial, rating or endorsement.

n. To express yourself on any site you wish using a pseudonym not linked to your email address or friend networks to protect your confidentiality, but I cannot respond to any review due to confidentiality, and I may never see them. To communicate anything about therapy or therapist directly in session, even if you decide we are not a good fit.

o. To call 911 or go to the nearest hospital emergency room in the event of a crisis/emergency and seek immediate medical or psychiatric attention. If currently considering or threatening suicide or any form of harm to myself or others, client takes full responsibility for seeking appropriate local help immediately and for any action client may take. p. To understand that, in keeping with generally accepted standards of practice, therapist may confidentially consult with or receive mentoring from other mental health professionals, i.e. regarding case management. The purpose of the consultation is to assure quality care, and every effort is made to protect the identity of clients. You will be notified as to whom and when requested given a release form to sign prior to the consulting.

q. A proceeding for discipline of a licensee, registrant, or certificate holder may be added to existing statutes; commenced when the board that licenses, registers, or certifies the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder has reasonable grounds to believe that the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder under the board's jurisdiction has committed any act or failed to act pursuant to the grounds established in section 12-43-222 or 12-43-226. (II) (A) Any person who alleges that a licensee, registrant, or certificate holder violated a provision of this article 43 related to maintenance of records of a client eighteen years of age or older must file a complaint or other notice with the board within seven years after the person discovered or reasonably should have discovered the misconduct. A licensee, registrant, or certificate holder shall notify a client that the client's records may not be maintained after the seven-year period for filing a complaint pursuant to this section. The required notice must be provided to the client in writing no later than one hundred eighty days after the end of the client's treatment. The notice may be included with the licensee's disclosures pursuant to section 12-43-214 (1) or sent to the client's last-known mailing address. Consistent with all procedural requirements of this article 43, or otherwise required by law, the board must either take disciplinary action on the complaint or dismiss the complaint no later than two years after the date the complaint or notice was filed with the board. (B) The seven-year limitation period specified in subsection (1)(a)(II)(A) of this section does not apply to the filing of a complaint or other notice with the board for any other violation of this article 43, including the acts described in section 12-43-222 or 12-43-226.

r. If an adult client requests a copy of the file then my policy is to provide a treatment summary. In the rare case that SSA or a disability agency requests a copy with a specific release for the actual record then the entire copy of the file may be released.

s. If a couple/family client needs individual therapy individual(s) will be referred. Otherwise couple/family therapy would need to be terminated and couple/family therapy could not resume, and must have written consent of all parties. The risk is one party could subpoena therapist later while treating one and giving information on the couple/family causing complications. Couple/family clients may have individual break-out sessions to support the goals of the couple/family, for intake and assessment. During break-out sessions with one member of the couple/family, we limit confidentiality, meaning anything that's shared in break-out sessions may be shared with the other member(s) to effectively treat the couple/family, with consent. With consent I will use my best judgment as to whether, when, and to what extent first the disclosing member be given the opportunity to share it or I make disclosure to the couple/family, if appropriate. Such information becomes part of the couple/family client's file, and may indicate need to terminate couples/family therapy if shared information indicates continuing couples/family therapy could cause harm, i.e. ongoing affair or characterological domestic violence. As long as no major extreme conflict exists between siblings, they may both receive services here. If you feel it necessary to talk about matters you absolutely don't want to be shared with anyone then consult with an individual therapist who can treat you individually. This prevents a conflict of interest of an individual and a couple/family. Information gained in break-out sessions may be relevant or essential to proper treatment of couple/family. If I am not free to exercise my clinical judgment regarding the need to bring this information to the couple during therapy I might be placed in a situation where I will have to terminate couples/family therapy. This policy intends to prevent such need for termination. A request for records by anyone in couples/family therapy requires the signed authorization of all privilege holders. Information shared by a collateral is not confidential and may be shared if subpoenaed to testify.

5. METHODS AND TECHNIQUES

Therapist primarily offers Gottman Method, Emotionally Focused Therapy, mindfulness-based Cognitive Behavioral Therapy (CBT), Solution-Focused Therapy (SFT).

6. DISCLOSURE REGARDING DIVORCE AND CUSTODY LITIGATION

If you are involved in divorce or custody litigation, my role as a therapist is not to make recommendations to the court concerning custody or parenting issues. By signing this Disclosure Statement, you agree not to subpoena me to court for testimony or for disclosure of treatment information in such litigation; and you agree not to request that I write any reports to the court or to your attorney, making recommendations concerning custody. The court can appoint professionals, who have no prior relationship with family members, to conduct an investigation or evaluation and to make recommendations to the court concerning parental responsibilities or parenting time in the best interests of the family's children. If you subpoena me or records I will obtain an attorney to oppose it in order to preserve the extremely important therapeutic relationship. Harm may result in the clinical relationship when providers are forced to testify and to share treatment information regarding their children clients. If children client's confidentiality is betrayed it may risk loss of therapeutic alliance and trust. Despite this should client subpoena therapist to testify in court about therapy sessions, therapist testimony in court is limited to statements of fact about therapy sessions conducted with client and attending parties. Therapist is NOT qualified to offer opinions in matters of custody, parental fitness, and topics beyond the scope of the therapy sessions. Therapy sessions are protected by HIPAA and the Colorado Revised Statutes, and client/therapist confidentiality will be invoked during testimony, except where explicit or implied consent has been given by all parties attending those sessions being addressed. The judge may order therapist to testify, and therapist may appeal judge's order under certain extraordinary circumstances. Therapist fee is $300/hour, "door-to-door", regardless of whether therapist testifies, with a $600 retainer due prior to the court date. If it is not paid for prior to giving testimony, therapist will inform the judge of that fact.
