2. Therapist has been in private practice in WY since June 28, 2021, CO since 2010, and worked for several HI or CO mental health agencies since 2007 and 2009 respectively.
3. The practice of licensed or registered persons in the field of psychotherapy is regulated by the Wyoming Mental Health Professions Licensing Board <https://mentalhealth.wyo.gov/home>. This disclosure statement is required by the Mental Health Professions Licensing Act.
4. CLIENT RIGHTS AND IMPORTANT INFORMATION
 - a. You are entitled to receive information from therapist about your therapy methods, techniques used, duration (if known), and fee structure.
 - b. You can seek a second opinion from another therapist or terminate therapy at any time.
 - c. In a professional relationship (such as ours), sexual intimacy is never appropriate and should be reported to the Board that licenses, registers, or certifies the licensee, registrant or certificate holder.
 - d. Generally speaking, the information provided by and to the client in a professional relationship with therapist is legally confidential and therapist cannot disclose the information without client's consent. There are several exceptions to confidentiality according to W.S. 33-38-113 which include:
The maintenance of confidentiality of all written or verbal communications between client and therapist. As of March 1, 1999 Wyoming has implemented a privileged communication statute. This law states that, when involved in legal proceedings (civil, criminal or juvenile) clients retain the right to privacy, unless these specific circumstances exist:
 - a) abuse or harmful neglect of children, the elderly or disabled or incompetent individuals is known or reasonably suspected
 - b) the validity of a will of a former client is contested
 - c) information related to counseling is necessary to defend against a malpractice action brought by a client
 - d) an immediate threat of physical violence against a readily identifiable victim is disclosed to the counselor
 - e) in the context of civil commitment proceedings, where an immediate threat of self-inflicted harm is disclosed to the counselor

 - g) the patient or client is examined pursuant to a court order
 - h) in the context of investigations and hearings brought by the client and conducted by the board, where violations of this act are at issue.Information that is deemed to be of a sensitive nature will be inspected by the board and the board shall determine whether or not the information will become part of the record and subject to public disclosure. You may read the HIPAA Privacy Rule Federal law 45 C.F.R 164.501 for further details. If a legal exception arises during therapy, if feasible, you will be informed accordingly.
- e. When I am concerned about your safety, you consent to my policy to request a Welfare Check through local law enforcement. In doing so, I may disclose to law enforcement officers information concerning my concerns.
- f. If parents request treatment information from me, I may provide a treatment summary, in compliance with HIPAA Standards.
- g. To not have sessions or a conversation with me recorded by you, members, or therapist without our advance written signed consent permitting it.
- h. To develop your goals and Treatment Plan and learn of the benefits and risks associated with the particular approach, and anticipated frequency, with no absolute guarantee of your desired results by your therapist as it is hard to predict the outcome of therapy.

i. To phone call therapist for any non-emergency reason during office hours: 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 pm. Messages will be returned by the end of the next business day. Therapist is not available on an emergency basis.

j. To text or email for scheduling purposes only. To protect your privileged and private confidential information by not texting or emailing it; it becomes a part of your legal medical record documented and archived in your chart. Emails are retained in the logs of your and my Internet service providers and available to be read by their system administrator(s). All of technology is not confidential and can be hacked into. To consent to sending and accepting texts you recognize the risk that information could be exposed to others when it appears on your phone. Fax is used to transmit and receive health information to and from requested parties with consent. I understand that AIC may contact me to provide appointment reminders or information about treatment alternatives or other health-related benefits and services that may be of interest to me.

k. AIC may keep and store client information electronically on AIC's laptop or desktop computers, and/or some mobile devices. In order to maintain security and protect this information, AIC may employ the use of firewalls, antivirus software, changing passwords regularly, and encryption methods to protect computers and/or mobile devices from unauthorized access. AIC may also remotely wipe out data on mobile devices if the mobile device is lost, stolen, or damaged. AIC may use electronic backup systems such as external hard drives, thumb drives, or similar methods. If such backup methods are used, reasonable precautions will be taken to ensure the security of this equipment and it will be locked up for storage. AIC uses a cloud-based service for storing or backing up information, Microsoft One Drive and Simple Practice EHR. AIC may maintain the security of the electronically stored information through encryption and passwords.

l. To leave your cell phone in your car to protect privacy in case of spyware vulnerabilities. To turn off GPS tracking on your device if you use location-based services on your mobile phone.

m. To know I do not accept friend or contact requests from current or former clients on any social networking site (Facebook, LinkedIn, etc) to avoid compromising confidentiality and to keep the boundaries of our therapeutic relationship so do not contact me these ways. I understand that AIC has a business social media account page. I understand that there is no requirement that I "like" or "follow" this page. I understand that should I "like" or choose to "follow" AIC's business social media page that others will see my name associated with "liking" or "following" that page. I understand that this applies to any comments that I post on AIC's page/wall as well. I understand that any comments I post regarding therapeutic work between my therapist and I will be deleted as soon as possible. I agree that I will refrain from discussing, commenting, and/or asking therapeutic questions via any social media platform. I agree that if I have a therapeutic comment and/or question that I will contact my therapist through the mode I consented to and not through social media. Know my listings on any site like square, yelp, etc. are not requests to add a review, testimonial, rating or endorsement.

n. To express yourself on any site you wish using a pseudonym not linked to your email address or friend networks to protect your confidentiality, but I cannot respond to any review due to confidentiality, and I may never see them. To communicate anything about therapy or therapist directly in session, even if you decide we are not a good fit.

o. To call 911 or go to the nearest hospital emergency room in the event of a crisis/emergency and seek immediate medical or psychiatric attention. If currently considering or threatening suicide or any form of harm to myself or others, client takes full responsibility for seeking appropriate local help immediately and for any action client may take. Client acknowledges the following resources: www.hopeline.com

1-800-273-TALK(8255) 24hour Suicide Prevention Lifeline	1-800-SUICIDE	1-800-656-HOPE	1-800-TLC-TEEN

p. To understand that, in keeping with generally accepted standards of practice, therapist may confidentially consult with or receive mentoring from other mental health professionals, i.e. regarding case management. The purpose of the consultation is to assure quality care, and every effort is made to protect the identity of clients. You will be notified as to whom and when requested given a release form to sign prior to the consulting.

q. A proceeding for discipline of a licensee, registrant, or certificate holder may be added to existing statutes; commenced when the board that licenses, registers, or certifies the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder has reasonable grounds to believe that the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder under the board's jurisdiction has committed any act or failed to act.

r. If an adult client requests a copy of the file then my policy is to provide a treatment summary. In the rare case that SSA or a disability agency requests a copy with a specific release for the actual record then the entire copy of the file may be released.

s. If a couple/family client needs individual therapy individual(s) will be referred. Otherwise couple/family therapy would need to be terminated and couple/family therapy could not resume, and must have written consent of all parties. The risk is one party could subpoena therapist later while treating one and giving information on the couple/family causing complications. Couple/family clients may have individual break-out sessions to support the goals of the couple/family, for intake and assessment. During break-out sessions with one member of the couple/family, we limit confidentiality, meaning anything that's shared in break-out sessions may be shared with the other member(s) to effectively treat the couple/family, with consent. With consent I will use my best judgment as to whether, when, and to what extent first the disclosing member be given the opportunity to share it or I make disclosure to the couple/family, if appropriate. Such information becomes part of the couple/family client's file, and may indicate need to terminate couples/family therapy if shared information indicates continuing couples/family therapy could cause harm, i.e. ongoing affair or characterological domestic violence. As long as no major extreme conflict exists between siblings, they may both receive services here. If you feel it necessary to talk about matters you absolutely don't want to be shared with anyone then consult with an individual therapist who can treat you individually. This prevents a conflict of interest of an individual and a couple/family. Information gained in break-out sessions may be relevant or essential to proper treatment of couple/family. If I am not free to exercise my clinical judgment regarding the need to bring this information to the couple during therapy I might be placed in a situation where I will have to terminate couples/family therapy. This policy intends to prevent such need for termination. A request for records by anyone in couples/family therapy requires the signed authorization of all privilege holders. Information shared by a collateral is not confidential and may be shared if subpoenaed to testify.

t. I will adhere to the Code of Ethics of the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy.

5. METHODS AND TECHNIQUES

Therapist primarily offers Accelerated Experiential Dynamic Psychotherapy (AEDP) (Level 3 trained) and Eye Movement Desensitization Reprocessing (EMDR) therapy for individuals, Emotionally Focused Therapy (Core Skills trained) for couples, and integrates InterPersonal Neurobiology approach, trauma-informed mindfulness-based Cognitive Behavioral Therapy (CBT), Dialectical Behavioral Therapy (DBT), Solution-Focused Therapy (SFT), Acceptance and Commitment Therapy (ACT), Motivational Interviewing (MI), and systemic therapies with a strengths-based approach, tailoring the evidence-based treatment modality appropriate to the client and presenting issues. Therapist is also trained in Gottman method Level I. Issues of specialized experience and interest are relationships, parenting, trauma, anxiety, depression, and ADHD. Duration is determined by need and measured progress.

6. DISCLOSURE REGARDING DIVORCE AND CUSTODY LITIGATION

If you are involved in divorce or custody litigation, my role as a therapist is not to make recommendations to the court concerning custody or parenting issues. By signing this Disclosure Statement, you agree not to subpoena me to court for testimony or for disclosure of treatment information in such litigation; and you agree not to request that I write any reports to the court or to your attorney, making recommendations concerning custody. The court can appoint professionals, who have no prior relationship with family members, to conduct an investigation or evaluation and to make recommendations to the court concerning parental responsibilities or parenting time in the best interests of the family's children. If you subpoena me or records I will obtain an attorney to oppose it in order to preserve the extremely important therapeutic relationship. Harm may result in the clinical relationship when providers are forced to testify and to share treatment information regarding their children clients. If children client’s confidentiality is betrayed it may risk loss of therapeutic alliance and trust. Despite this should client subpoena therapist to testify in court about therapy sessions, therapist testimony in court is limited to statements of fact about therapy sessions conducted with client and attending parties. Therapist is NOT qualified to offer opinions in matters of custody, parental fitness, and topics beyond the scope of the therapy sessions. Therapy sessions are protected by HIPAA and client/therapist confidentiality will be invoked during testimony, except where explicit or implied consent has been given by all parties attending those sessions being addressed. The judge may order therapist to testify, and therapist may appeal judge’s order under certain extraordinary circumstances. Therapist fee is $300/hour, “door-to-door”, regardless of whether therapist testifies, with a $600 retainer due prior to the court date. If it is not paid for prior to giving testimony, therapist will inform the judge of that fact.
